

What is the Commission on Support?

The Commission on Support is dedicated to empowering the backbone of our community colleges—the administrative assistants, business office employees, IT specialists, facilities staff, and all those who play a vital role in supporting the entire college ecosystem. This commission champions collaboration and professional development, ensuring that every support employee has access to the tools, resources, and training necessary to excel in their roles.

BREAKOUT SEASONS

Building Stronger Communities: Leveraging Partnerships for Degree Completion

The Administrative Assistant's Survival Guide: Streamlining Operations and Elevating Service in Higher Education

First-Gen Forward: Strategies for Student Persistence and Retention

Recruiting and Retaining Nontraditional Students in Community Colleges

Navigating College with Confidence: A Frontloading Approach to Student Preparedness

A Day in the Life of a Success Coach: A Holistic Approach to Student Retention and Success

Building Bridges: Creating a Connected New Student Orientation Experience at Jefferson State Community College

Beyond the Gradebook: Reimagining Canvas for Student Success

Thriving Not Just Surviving: Supporting Students Through Challenging Times

LeadYOURship: The Self-Aware Advantage for Leadership and Life

Success Coaches: Vital Connectors Building Bridges to Student Success

Meeting Students Where They Are: Supporting Mental Health and Wellness Beyond the Classroom

The Miracle of Alignment: Thriving in the Role You're In

Creating Solutions to Maximize Energy Conservation and Strengthen Customer Owned Electric Grid Resiliency

COMMISSION ON SUPPORT