

What is the Commission on Faculty?

The Commission on Faculty plays a vital role in enhancing the professional development and support of community college educators across Alabama. This dedicated group focuses on advocating for best practices in teaching, faculty engagement, and academic excellence. By fostering collaboration and providing resources, the Commission empowers faculty members to thrive in their roles, ensuring they are equipped to inspire and guide the next generation of learners.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Harnessing AI Tutors and Personalized AI Agents to Improve Student Outcomes in Community College CIS Courses

Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Nursing Education: A Roundtable Discussion

Cultivating Empathy Through Poverty Simulation: Expanding Experiential Learning in Education

Real Voices, Real Thinking: Authenticity as an Antidote to AI Misuse

Active Learning in the Classroom: What? Why? And How?

Leveling the Playing Field: Using OER, AI, and Canvas for Equitable and Affordable Course Delivery

Breaking Silos and Getting Outside the Walls: Addressing Key Issues Through Cross-Curricular and Cross-Divisional Collaboration

A Cheating Tool or Teaching and Learning Partner? Reimagining AI Ethics in Higher Education

Community Partnerships in Nursing Simulation: Enhancing Student Learning through Collaboration

Code Blue to Breakthrough: Using Board Games to Build Systems Thinkers in Nursing

High-Impact Learning, Literally: CACC's Journey to Space

The A.I. Spell Book

Healing the Healers: Recognizing and Overcoming Compassion Fatigue for Health Sciences Faculty

Closing the Learning Gap: Helping Digital Natives Use Canvas to Learn Effectively

As our students are evolving, is our Instruction adapting? Increasing Active Learning in the Classroom

From Concept to Culture: Integrating INACSL Standards into Community College Simulation Practice

Mental Health Awareness: Identify, Understand, Respond

Power in the Prompt: Unlocking AI's Full Potential

True GRIT: Our Strength, Our Students, Our Success

COMMISSION ON FACULTY